

Short Bio

Wes S. Sudduth

Partner

wssudduth@Venable.com

Washington, DC | +1 202.344.4636

Wes Sudduth assists clients on issues related to international trade and national security laws and regulations, including cross-border regulatory compliance, economic sanctions, export controls, and foreign investment reviews. Wes also focuses on import and customs matters, forced labor, anti-corruption and anti-bribery, trade remedies, and transportation and logistics-related laws and regulations, including the Shipping Act/maritime and all other modes. Wes is an experienced counselor who works to find practical solutions for client needs that include internal compliance reviews and investigations, training, screening and due diligence, voluntary disclosures, mergers and acquisitions (M&A), contract review, and proactive engagement with regulators.
